Hi everyone my name is Emma and I am 22 years old, I am a university student and I live in a small apartment near the (1) campus. Today I'd like to tell you about my (2) daily routine. I usually wake up around 7 in the morning, the first thing I do is turn off my alarm stay in bed for a few minutes. Then I get up, go to bathroom, wash my face, and brush my teeth. After that, I prepare a (3) quick breakfast, usually toast with jam and a cup of tea.
At around 7.45, I get dressed and pack my backpack with my books, notebook and laptop. My first class starts at 8.30, so I (4) leave home around 8am and walk to the university. It only takes me 10 minutes to get there. In the morning, I usually have 2 or 3 classes. I study psychology and I really like it. My professor are nice and my (5) classmates are friendly. During breaks, we often go to the cafeteria to have some coffee and talk.
At 12.30, I have lunch in the university cafeteria, I usually eat rice, chicken and salad and sometimes I drink juice. After lunch, I go to the library to study or finish my (6) homework. In the afternoon, I sometimes have more classes or group projects. When I finish my classes, I usually go back home around 5 pm. On the way, I sometimes stop at a small market to buy (7) snacks or fruits. When I get home, I change into (8 comfortable clothes and rest for a while. I like to watch videos on YouTube or (9) chat with my friends online. In the evening, I cook something simple for dinner, maybe pasta or soup. I usually eat around 7.30pm.
After dinner, I clean up the kitchen and then spend some time studying or reading, before going to bed, I like to take a shower and check my phone one last time.
I (10) usually go to sleep around 11pm, because I need to wake up early for class the next day. That's my daily routine as a university student. My days are busy but I really enjoy learning new things and living on my own.
